New Head of Institutional Clients at GKB

Graubündner Kantonalbank (GKB) recently established the separate "Institutional Clients" department, providing services to pension funds, insurance companies and foundations. The new department is headed by Jon Fadri Pitsch, who joined GKB in September 2023.

Jon Fadri Pitsch (41) studied business administration and subsequently pursued further qualifications in the field of finance, including a diploma as Certified International Investment Analyst (CIIA). He also has many years of practical experience in providing advice and support to institutional clients, focusing on strategy advice, asset management, global custody and liquidity management. Before joining GKB he worked at Credit Suisse as Deputy Head of Eastern Switzerland Region and Head of Graubünden Market Area in the institutional segment. Jon Fadri Pitsch grew up in the Engadine and lives in Chur with his family.

"We managed to find a proven expert as the new Head of the Institutional Clients segment in the person of Jon Fadri Pitsch. He has the skills, network and experience needed to develop and expand Graubündner Kantonalbank's business with this important client group with his team," says Pascal Pernet, Member of GKB's Executive Board and Head of the Markets business unit.

More information about the services offered for institutional clients can be found at gkb.ch/insti
